TARA, Ont.—Over 250 relatives, friends & neighbours attended an open house Tuesday afternoon and evening, Sept. 19, to honour Mr. and Mrs. T. N. (Tom) Duff on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

For this very special occasion, the home was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, roses and potted mums. Of special note was a bouquet of native flowers from Hawaii. The bride also had the pleasure of wearing a corsage of yellow Hawaiian orchids.

Two grandsons, Jeff and Tommy McMain, of Amberly, attended the guest book.

The couple's family of six were all home for the occasion. They are Stephen and Tommy, of Tara, Jeanne (Mrs. Jack Sargent), Wheaton, Ill., Ann (Mrs. Arthur Friesen), Virden, Manitoba; (Doreen), Mrs. Bob McMain, of Amberly and Carol (Mrs. Keith Evans) of Calgary.

The couple have 18 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Also attending the event were the groom's brothers, Cameron and Alex of Bolton, the bride's sister, Mrs. Elsie Kenderdine, of Scarth, Man., a niece and nephew Mr. and Mrs. Cal Spier, of Ottawa as well as a number of cousins from Toronto and Owen Sound.

Golden wedding activities concluded with a family dinner on Wednesday evening at the Sauveau Golf and Country Club. On the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, the family presented their mother with a garnet ring and their father with a gold wrist watch.

Walter Dinsdale is still the champion!

RESTON — Walter Dinsdale once again proved his popularity with the voters of Brandon-Souris Constituency and rolled over his opponents with a majority of more than 11,000. He was endorsed by 17,751 voters, a total exceeding the combined votes accorded his three opponents by nearly 5,000 votes.

In the previous election Walter had a majority of 5,097. His increased popularity was the trend across the west, where the voters showed unmistakably that they were not satisfied with the policies of the Trudeau government.

In Manitoba only two Liberals were returned, J. Richardson in Winnipeg South and Joseph Guay in St. Boniface. They held five seats when the election was called.

In Saskatchewan the Liberals held only one seat, they were shut-out in Alberta and won only four seats in British Columbia.

The Conservatives have elected 102 members to 108 for the Liberals, 30 for the New Democrats, 13 for Social Credit and two independents. There are two seats undecided.

A number of re-counts are expected which may alter the final picture.

Percentage wise the Liberals had 38.3% of the popular vote, the Conservatives 35.2, the New Democrats 17.8, the Social Credit 7.5 and others 1.2. Only in Quebec did the Liberals maintain their popularity, although small gains were made in the Maritime provinces.

At press time on Wednesday, the situation was confused and it may take some time before the answer will be known. It will certainly be a minority government but whether Liberal or Conservative remains to be decided.

In Brandon-Souris the vote was as follows:

Dinsdale, W. (PC)	17,751
Bedeck, Garry (L)	8,193
Singleton, K. (NDP)	5,479
Lea, William (Ind)	216

The unsuccessful candidates all lost their $200.00 deposit.

District board meetings are held twice a year with representatives from all R. M.'s to discuss agricultural problems and to send resolutions to the Dept. of Agriculture.

W. T. Real, representative on the Centennial Haven Board reported that meetings are held at least every three months. Plans are still being made to extend the home and establish a nursing wing. New refrigeration had recently been installed in the kitchen.

Mr. Henri Wilvers gave a report as director of the Redvers Hospital Board. He reported that the hospital had a deficit of $28,000 last year but S. H. S. P. had made a grant of $12,000 towards the deficit. He also reported on the hospital staffing, etc. In general the hospital pays for itself, he stated.

Aime Gauthier, Fire Chief of the Village of Storthoks reported on the fire equipment on hand. All the necessary equipment is on hand to conform with the Act. A second hand truck had been purchased during the year and a water tank installed on it. The fire hall has been renovated and will be heated at all times. Three fire phones are installed in the village.

The cost of going to a fire by any ratepayer calling the Brigade will be $15.00 per call plus wages of the fire brigade and cost of materials such as CO2 used.

Secretary Rita Gauthier reported on the court case between Mobil Oil Co. and the municipality. She also told of meetings with Mobil Oil and the Municipality, once at Estevan and twice at Regina. The court case was described at length and the judge's decision (in favor of the municipality) was read at length. (It is now being appealed to a higher court by Mobil Oil.)

During the discussion period the questions of tax arrears was discussed at length. It was suggested that everything possible be done to collect arrears by first talking to the farmer and if that wasn't effective to apply for Tax Enforcement proceedings.

The air strip was also discussed and one runway is to be relocated as soon as possible so it can be put into use. It will also be posted.

A resolution was passed asking that the custom office at Sherwood be open to a later hour especially on weekends and during the summer months. A report on the indemnity and supervision for the Reeve and each councillor was given. Also amounts spent on roadwork and gravel in each ward and the number of culverts installed.

The financial report by the Secretary emphasized what was spent on roads for maintenance, wages, gravelling, construction, etc.

Reeve Nelson Harvey and the councillors for division one, three and five were returned by acclamation.

Presentation of T. V. to the hospital

A 20" T. V. was recently presented to the Reston Hospital by the Canada Packers Ltd., in exchange for 30,000 Canada Packer labels. Bill Abbey, made the presentation on behalf of

The labels were put in three large cartons, of 10,000 labels each with a total weight of 70 lbs. and shipped to the company.

This was a community effort. Housewives from Sinclair, Linklater, Ewart, Kinloss, Broomhill, Pipestone, Bellevue, Reston and even our rink saved the labels. Some even arrived by mail from interested persons outside this area.

The labels are still being saved for articles needed in different halls and churches in this area.

ALSTONE NOTES

by E. J. Guthrie

A nice attendance at United Church on Sunday morning in spite of stormy weather and slippery roads when Rev. Schurman spoke to the members of the Masonic Lodge. He chose for his address, cornerstone, key-stone and milestone. He said some complimentary things about the Masonic brotherhood but also gave us quite a bit of food for thought. The Masons came in a body at the start of the service with three of the brothers taking part in the service, namely Bros. Elmer Bulloch, John Rainie and Jas. Forsyth. Here's one member that thinks the Masonic order is a wonderful organization but we still need the church above all organizations.

Rev. and Mrs. Hester came to Alstone after the service in the Anglican Church and held service for the benefit of us who are shut-ins. The Rev. gave a running story of what took place at the service of the union of the three denominations that took place in the United Church the previous Sunday evening. Reading were given by Elizabeth Guthrie and Mrs. J. D. Bulloch and several favorite hymns were sung. Dorothy Baldwin presided at the organ. The reading given by Mrs. Bulloch was a tribute to the writer of the poem "In Flanders Fields."

Some of us attended the Pipestone fowl supper on Tuesday night where we received the usual delicious meal and wonderful friendly service. We hear that man Schurman got one on the house which makes us wonder what that character's got that some of the rest of us who happen to be batching haven't got, ha, ha.

Unit C of the U. C. W. held their monthly meeting in Alstone lounge on Wednesday afternoon with a nice gathering of ladies in attendance. Lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

The Elmer Duncan's, Margaret Skelton, the W. S. Bulloch's and E. J. among others from Reston attended the fowl supper at Antler, Sask., on Wednesday night where we partook of a wonderful meal and very friendly greeting. The genial Norm White was helping as usual.

Rev. Hester was in town on Thursday, his weekly visiting day. He and I had China tea with Sue Anne Eng in the afternoon.

We extend get well wishes to Alex Cowan, Lew Trill, Jack Guthrie, Billie Opper, Dave Bailey, Helen Roddy, Mrs. Schurman, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. McMurchy who are presently in Reston Hospital. We hear Jack Guthrie was to go home Monday and hope the rest will get out soon.

Some friendly arguments are held at Alstone at times in the evening but most of us when convinced against our will are of the same opinion still.

Rene Schurman isn't supposed to climb stairs for some time, and E. J. has difficulty, so they have decided that if one half of the Church was waxed they could walk up one side going into the Church and slide down the other when they came out, ha, ha.

Bob Bulloch did his good deed for the day on Saturday night. He came to Alstone and turned back our clocks an hour for us, some of which are rather high to reach. A tall youth among us outsiders comes in handy some times. We didn't get the one in the lounge Bob but that was Grandpa's fault.

An interesting game of scrabble took place in the lounge on Saturday night under the able coaching of Cherri Smith. Cherri also makes wonderful waste paper baskets out of colored egg cartons and a tin plate in nothing flat. There just isn't much that gal can't make.

Mias Jackson expected weekend visitors from Weyburn but owing to the snow and road conditions they phoned to say they wouldn't risk travelling.

If the snow keeps falling here there will soon be enough that J. E. will be starting his winters shovelling again. Good thing he have someone who can do it, E. J.

We were to have had a visit from our Mennonite friends on Sunday night but owing to other commitments they felt it necessary to cancel till a later date when we hope they will come.

I was coming in the south door on Sunday night when a small boy dressed in a nice furry hooded parka appeared at my elbow and said in a soft pleasant voice I'll get that door for you Mr. Guthrie. Thanks Bob, doors are always a help for me.

Ronnie and Lois and wee Shannon called at Alstone on Sunday morning to say goodbye to Aunt Jessie on the way to The Pas where they are to be employed. We wish you the best kids in your new place of residence.

We extend thanks to the Anglican Church Women on Monday night. The tables were set up in the lounge and everyone who didn't go over to the hall sat in. E. J. was asked to repeat Bobbie Burns grace which he had learned when a boy many years ago. There was an extra plate at the table for the stranger. We think likely it was for Schurman but he never showed up. After the dinner was over and the dishes done "E. J. & J. D. were delegated to do them but had eaten too much." We had a visit and J. D. brought out his translator and we listened to the first round of election returns. The meal was delicious and everyone enjoyed it very much.

We are glad to know that Counsellor Guthrie is out of hospital. We hear that he and Lew Trill and Alex Cowan are going to quit smoking.

We would like to pay tribute to those who were in office at the polling booths for the taking of the vote on Monday, for doing it in such a courteous efficient manner. Keep yourselves in readiness folks, the wheel likely, be another vote for you to handle before too long.

Hiram returned to the building of the temple on Monday morning after a long weekend of snowy weather, and while there are not as many workmen employed as there was at the building of King Solomon's Temple the framework of the walls is practically erected and will soon be ready for siding, and rafter for the roof will then be put on. They seem to be all cut and prepared. Some of us look back on the days when we would have been able to take part in work like that. But it's later than you think.

Sauce for the Goose

by Dave Forsyth

So much for Gallup polls—any one "decided" thereby is not wise". They were prepared to give the Liberals about 2 to 1 margin.

Maybe even our provincial premier may learn that it is a risky thing to predict that a good representation on the prairie was probable for those of his political persuasion.

Already there is mention of the possibility of another election.

I wonder if it isn't possible somewhere some time this side of Purgatory to do away with the party system and our recurring expensive elections and arrive at some other system of joint government. What for instance is to be gained by going through the motions every so often trying to unseat a man that takes more votes than all his opponents combined?

Hope the pre-election polls south of us are as badly off track as ours. They could just get rid of one (in my estimation) of the most despotic rules of our day and age.

And our election campaigns last too long and cost too much. In our rural area at least they are still geared home and buggy or pedestrian travel.

PRISON REFORM—A CITIZEN APPROACH

Maybe more of us should go to prison. Not to stay, but to visit—to take a small step toward learning more about the problems of prison insiders.

The idea is not so new, but it is newly called to our attention by the rapid sequence of prison riots in just a few places recently. Oct. 12, at the District of Columbia jail 50 inmates released 12 hostages after a riot, trusting that people would do something about their grievances: mixing of young and old prisoners, bad food, not enough contact with social workers, delayed trials. Then just a day after the settlement, there was another riot in the same jail. This time no hostages. Again, no shooting.

Oct. 14 some inmates in the Burlington County New Jersey jail rioted and took a guard hostage. They were put down by police who charged in without guns. The next day, at Concord, Mass., six guards were injured in putting down a prison riot by 10 inmates.

It's quieter now at the District of Columbia jail, and lawyers are hearing individual inmates' complaints while other "outsiders" plan to follow up regularly to help improve things.

SCIENTISTS NEED TO COMMUNICATE

Scientists doing research in the North should communicate more—with the native people Bill Mussell, executive director of the Union of British Columbia Chiefs, said recently. The 100 scientists in the audience at a federal government workshop on science activity in the North agreed.

During a later discussion period, several of the audience said scientists are having problems communicating even among themselves let alone with the general public or members of special northern groups.

Mr. Mussell, a former Indian chief from Chilliwack, B. C., said the conference illustrated the apparent low opinion the organizers had of native people.

He was the only representative of

In Massachusetts a new prison reform law went into effect Oct. 16 which will, among other things, provide prisoners with opportunity for participating in activities outside the prison.

Now, if there is a brief pause between riots, may be a good time to take that trip to prison. If a few people in each community could visit nearby prisons and hear some of the complaints from the insiders, or at least learn what a prison atmosphere is actually like, a number of things might happen.

The new channel of communication might help make the airing of complaints a more normal and less convulsive process. The contact between a few community individuals—or a committee of some kind—and the inmates could help bring some public attention to some of the problems inside and pressure for improvements—before the problems explode into riots.

The problem of prison reform is complex. But that doesn't mean individuals can't do a little, and do it now, before the nearest jail or prison erupts, to lend their conscience and attention to a grave social challenge.

—Christian Science Monitor

the native population invited to the four-day conference.

The department of northern affairs lists native peoples as a first priority in its policy statement, he said.

"I'm pleased to hear this to hear Northern Affairs Minister Jean Chretien repeat it this morning."

"But when the native people are not included in the meeting this indicates they have little power and not much involvement."

Mr. Mussell, who holds a degree in social work from the University of British Columbia, said researchers in the North this summer spent about $12 million but there was no involvement of native groups in this research.

most societies for the cultivation of good morals. . . . Several parties in town are making complaints of the nuisance occasioned by cattle running at large damaging lawns, etc. . . . Nearly all the wheat in this district is threatened and farmers are now busy as possible plowing for the spring crop. . . . Ed. Harper has secured the agency for the Hupmobile and has prospects of closing several deals for early spring delivery. The auto has come to stay and will soon be as common on the roads as the horses now are. Surely we are living in age of speed. . . . The Reston Dramatic Society Club will present OH! SUSANNA! in the Manitoba Hall on Nov. 14th. Proceeds will go to the Church of England.

Outdoors Only . . .

By The Rambler
No. 265

So winter has landed a white-fisted blow!

Still, last Sunday's little blizzard need have been no surprise. Professional commitments led us to Winnipeg last Thursday, to arrive there in the middle of the evening. Came the next morning, and lo!—everything was plastered with three to four inches of snow. Alberta and Saskatchewan's hoary snorter had whipped in overnight. As a frustrating aftermath to this Friday's rising temperatures led to loads of slush, slop and splatter.

Return to Reston last Sunday afternoon revealed thinning effects of the earlier storm as we proceeded westward. But, around 3:30 p.m., near Rathwell, we ran into driving snow that thickened until, between Glenboro and Souris, visibility was down to about twenty or thirty yards. However, all ended well, and Reston slept with snow.

With the wintry wrapping came birds to suit the season. Week-ago-Saturday's Snowy Owl seen by Don Ready may have been the first bird of a possibly greater parade of Snowys to be seen than has been for a few years; for this is year four in a cycle of years, the end of which marks the change of food supply (Lemmings) in the Arctic and sends surplus owls southward to seek sustenance. Wow! But it's the truth. October 28, Grant and Daryl Hicks saw a very white Snowy Owl on the north side of their farm. October 29, John Hainline observed a Snowy south of Bede. These sightings are very early, but may show not so much that we need to brace ourselves for a heavy winter; rather, just for a greater influx of the Arctic Owls. So, please, observers, shoot with camera only—Snowy Owls have full legal protection. And let's hear promptly about any sightings, please.

Not unusual storm monitors are Snow Buntings or Snow Birds. About a dozen of these flew up from beside the road one time on our somewhat stormy return home Sunday.

Another winter bird appearing early in Reston was the Bohemian Waxwing that turned up at a feeder tray, October

25. Of the two kinds of Waxwings, the Bohemian is the larger and more grayish-brown bird, and possesses white wing-patches and rusty under tail-coverts.

Seven Whistling Swans appeared on the great slough south of the Log Cabin, Highway No. 10, last Thursday. With ice forming and food becoming scarcer and hard to get, these stately water fowl were perhaps restlessly debating the moment for swift flight to more appealing regions. There was no doubt about the speeding retreat, ahead of the storm, of eleven Whistling Swans that arrowed over Reston at about 10:30 p.m. Sunday evening. Had I not heard their wild and varying-pitched shrill cries, I should not have noticed their ghostly forms, low in the air, palely illuminated by town light reflected off their bodies. The swan's swift south-westward dash in the near dark, focused by sound, proved a memorable moment.

As though to baffle the frosty effects of these recent experiences, a Brown Thrasher visited Mrs. E. A. Wilkins' bird-feeder last Sunday. The tardy critter may have timed its visit just so that it could relax a bit until the trend of voting at Reston would send it scurrying off to the mild calm and friendly peace of politics south of the Border! Come you back, fool-hardy bird, where Pierre and Caouette play . . .

Yours naturally,
RAMBLER

The Days Gone By

10 YEARS AGO (Nov. 5, 1962)

The South-West Manitoba Feeder Cattle Association held their final sale here on Wednesday with Buck Rogers as the auctioneer. Four hundred and forty five head were sold with 293 going to the United States. Steer calves sold at a top price of $27.50; from 300 to 400 lbs.; and 400 to 500 lbs. at $28.00; Heifer calves 400 to 500 lbs. at a top of $23.10; Stock steers, top $26.75; Stock heifers top of $21.00 and cows at a top $18.35. . . . The public school children under the direction of the teachers, collected for UNICEF and the sum of $52.50 was realized. . . . Deer hunting in the district opens next Monday. Reports as to deer population in the district are varied, some farmers stating that they are plentiful and others reporting just the opposite. . . . Ghosts and goblins were out in force on Halloween but very few pranks of a serious nature occurred.

20 YEARS AGO (Nov. 6, 1952)

After a lengthy illness, Charles Byron Talman passed peacefully away in the Antler Hospital with interment in the Antler cemetery. . . . Leonard Ludlam was the unanimous choice of the members of the Elizabeth Branch of the Canadian Legion to head that organization for the coming year. . . . The Tilton Annual fowl supper, sponsored by the W. A. of the United Church was held on Thursday, Oct. 30th in the Church basement with over 400 in attendance. . . . On Sunday afternoon Nov. 21 a shower in honor of Miss Angele Monin was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Bourgeois at Bellegarde. Thirty-eight ladies attended. . . . A farewell party was held at Tilton in honor of Cpl. Roy Matheson, R. C. A. S. C. who leaves on Nov. 10 for service in Germany. . . . The Annual District Meeting of the Masonic Order, District No. 6, was held in the Masonic Hall here last Wednesday with an attendance of two hundred. District Deputy Grand Master, Walter Brown, presiding.

30 YEARS AGO (Oct. 29, 1942)

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Winch was the scene of a pretty wedding on Oct. 24 when their second daughter, Merle Jeanette became the bride of Mr. Jonathon Champion. . . . L. A. C. Russell Manning left on Wednesday for Victoria, B. C., where he will report on Nov. 1. He will be stationed from that point to some elementary Flying school. . . . Pheasants may lawfully be taken from now to Nov. 4, male birds only to be shot. A license fee of $1.25 is requisite. Birds are reported to be quite plentiful and widely distributed. The bag for pheasants is limited to eight for the season. Ducks have been very plentiful more so than for years and the most of them are mallards. Some of our sportsmen have had some good shoots. There is an abundance of good feed and the birds can be found north of the towns in nearly every barley field. The birds are wary and a good hide is necessary to get a good bag and decoys are helpful. Very few geese have been reported.

40 YEARS AGO (Nov. 3, 1932)

The anniversary concert of Ebor United Church was held on Oct. 28 in the School Hall. Owing to bad conditions of the roads there was only a fair turnout. The Sinclair ladies who put on a short sketch, in a very creditable manner, were the only people on the program from outside. The rink management met last week when it was decided to keep the rink open for the winter. Irvine Paul who had charge during the winter of 1931-32 has been engaged for the coming season. The rink paid about $170 net for the past season. . . . Right here in Reston we have a very fine staff of teachers and the Recorder is sorry to learn that again salaries had to be cut that the school might remain open for the regular school year. . . . The U. S. presidential election will be held on Nov. 8. Indications at the present time point to the election of Roosevelt. . . . The Sacrament of the Lord's supper will be at both Hillview and Reston United Churches next Sunday in connection with the usual services. Mr. Patterson will speak on the subject "The Unseen Presence."

50 YEARS AGO (Nov. 2, 1922)

Work on the Memorial Hall at Sinclair which is under the direction of A. H. Bushby, is being pushed as rapidly as weather conditions will permit. The building, when completed, gives promise of being a handsome structure, a credit to both builder and to the people of the Sinclair community. . . . The curlers while they have not yet called their first meeting of the season are beginning to enthuse over the winter sport, and great success during the winter season. . . . The last of the threshing crews in our district were paid off last week and the machines pulled in for the winter. Some of the farmers are using their tractors for plowing and are tearing up the field in rapid time. . . . Halloween passed off very orderly in our town and few mean tricks or damage was done, as far as can be learned.

60 YEARS AGO (Oct. 31, 1912)

As the time of year for reviving and stimulating of all organizations or societies that stand for the uplift of humanity, is at hand the Reston R. T. of T. have decided to have a grand rally on the fifth of Nov. All the members are requested to be present to help by their efforts and also their presence to aid in sustaining one of the fore-

What have we brought to Mrs. Bill Eisler's dinner table lately?

Fresh tomatoes. Mrs. Eisler never liked those imported tomatoes she used to buy in the middle of winter. Now she buys Manitoba grown tomatoes in December and thinks they're great. It all started a couple of years ago as part of the agricultural diversification program of our Food Products Branch. In co-operation with the University of Manitoba, the Manitoba Research Council, and the Manitoba Department of Agriculture a type of greenhouse was developed especially suitable for tomato growing in this climate. Then, exactly the right type of tomato plant was selected. The project was so successful that today there are commercial tomato growing hothouses in Kenney, Rathwell, Roblin, Arborg, Neepawa, Carberry, Virden, Portage la Prairie and Winnipeg. This means more delicious tomatoes more often in more Manitoba food stores. Mrs. Eisler says they're fresh, full of flavour and have a nice, firm texture. We agree. We know a good looking tomato when we see one. Got a great idea? Contact us. Maybe we can help.

The Editor's Jotbook

Need gas at 1:00 a.m. in the morning at Bolisevain? That was our predicament on Monday, and fellow publisher Miles Phillips of the Bolisevain Recorder solved it. He even recorded out of bed and pushed us to the Gulf station, the manager being kind enough to get out of bed to be of service. Thanks Miles! Thanks manager! All this came about because of a storm in North Dakota that slowed our progress to a crawl and the five hour trip from Frederick, S. D. to Brandon turned out to be a nine hour ordeal. However, we still had lots of fun in the pheasant fields and the hospitality of Tom and Shirley Hies was, as usual, tops. Making the expedition from this area were, ye editor who ventilated the South Dakota atmosphere, but not too many pheasants, Don Ready and son Bert, and Ed McMillan, of Brandon, who provided the transportation. From Winnipeg, came son Frank, from Steinbach, his brother-in-law Ernie Dyck, and from Grand Forks, N. D. son Murray. (Hope they made it home quicker than we did). Missed our old pointer, for hunting without a dog is not as much fun or are the results as good. However, we got some pretty good action in tree lines, corn fields and in particular one alfalfa strip about 80 yards wide and a half-mile long. As usual saw lots of ducks and on Friday saw flock after flock of geese, flying high and in formation, heading to the warmer climes, a warning of the weather we could expect on the way home! In South Dakota they have a point system for duck hunting that has much merit. A Mallard hen counts 80 points and a drake 20, with a limit of 100 points a day. So if you pick your birds you can shoot five Mallard drakes in a day, but a hen and a drake and you are through for the day. There is a point count for other varieties, but we are not familiar with it. Such a system should provide the Mallard hens and in time result in increased Mallard production. Anyway it was fun to get out in the open and enjoyed the fine hospitality, the companionship, and the initiation of Ernie to the hat shooters club. The turnip championship is now in the hands of Jim Forsyth, of the Ewart district with a 12 pounder. . . . Former Restonite Jack Galbraith, in a letter says the mail service was better when John Baxter states that the Oct. 6th issue of delivered it with horses. He the Recorder was the last received, letter dated Oct. 24th. Jack lives at Dutton, Ont.

Reggie's Ramblings

It is authoritatively stated that studies show Canadian young men in age group 18 to 25 rate on average only half as well, physically, as do Swedish young men in the same age group. . . well, I'll be a Swede!

A Toronto expert predicts that a Men's Liberation Movement will "mushroom" in Canada within the next 18 months. . . sounds like a lot of much to me.

Manitoba Civil Service want the government to give them the right to take part in political activity without jeopardizing their jobs. Which seems to be as good as asking for revival of the old political patronage system. . . supposedly (in government jobs) long since dead.

Edmonton supporters presented Prime Minister Trudeau with a Bull. Opponents will probably say that's very appropriate. . . he can shoot it.

Here's a piece of men's clothing will wear 'way out of sight soon, because of rising costs of cloth, wool, etc. . . well, there's always the old sweater-coat and patched - up blue jeans.

News Item: (At a political rally in Portage) "Mayor Henderson read quotations from the Bible praising persons of liberal thought and condemning those of vile actions who were not Liberals" . . . that's our boy, Lloyd!

Did you label anyone today?

Labels are for products — not people! There's nothing funny about being denied housing, refused employment or public services because of your looks or background. The individuality and character of a person — that's what counts. Discrimination is illogical — it's illegal and should not exist.

We all have a responsibility to see that the stamp of discrimination is erased, that the labels of bygone days are forgotten forever.

The aim of the Manitoba Human Rights Act, passed by the Legislature in 1970, is to create a climate of understanding and mutual respect, in which all Manitobans, regardless of their race, people, their rights. that's why we're here.

religion, sex, colour or ethnicity, will be equal in dignity and rights, will feel a part of the whole community, and will contribute to its well being and development.

Hallowe'en is quiet at Reston

RESTON - The ghosts and goblins were out in full force on Tuesday night for the annual Hallowe'en tricks and treats.
In Reston, little if any damage was done. The odd road block was placed on the streets from loose articles picked up and considerable hay was spread around. One local business man working at ice making at the rink, came out to find his car filled with straw, but no permanent damage.
At the post office some eggs were thrown and windows were soaped at various business places.

See where a man down in the USA has been sentenced to three hundred years in the pokey... the judge sure must have wanted that fella away!

A Manitoba government
news release says Winnipeg's Memorial Park is to be turned into a Winter Wonderland, at an estimated cost of $55,000...
And it should be a good omen
which is by no means peanuts.

6 THE RESTON RECORDER

Reston, Man., Nov. 2, 1972

The Toronto Star editorially announced that it has withdrawn its support from the Liberal party, and switched to the Conservatives in this election.
Which is the first time in 56 years that the Star has done this.
And it should be a good omen
... for the Liberals.
