ALSTONE NOTES

by E. J. Guthrie

Some of us played truant on Rev. Ernie on Sunday morning and attended Anglican Church to hear the Very Rev. John Conlin, Dean of St. Matthews Cathedral in Brandon, who was student minister here twenty years ago. Rev. Ernie came to Alstone in the afternoon and held a short service but we ducked out on him and went to the Masonic District picnic held in the park. Rev. Conlin, although he has lost a little of his Irish tongue gave a wonderful father's day talk, stressing that we should honor our fathers and our mothers and that there was nothing more comforting and binding than the human touch of tender love and care. A coffee party was held in the parish hall after the services to say farewell to Constable Dave Stewart and his wife Chris, who are being moved to Winnipeg. We wish them well. Hope Rev. Conlin will be able to come to Reston again in the not too distant future.

The Masonic District picnic in the park was a very friendly gathering. The old time bowling green balls were resurrected and while the turf isn't as smooth as it used to be, both the ladies and men, old and young, enjoyed bowling and croquet until it was time for supper, which was enjoyed by all. We were just about finished when a thunder storm made everyone's battle for cars. Johnnie Adair of Souris, the good soul that he is, had an extra rain coat in his car and saved E.J. from getting soaked. E.J. couldn't get out of low gear. The Museum was open which many looked through. There were quite a few lodges in the district represented and everyone had a nice time together in spite of the mosquitoes but we fought them off. We heard quite a few of the visitors say they had no idea we had such a beautiful park at Reston. Those of us who live here take it more or less for granted, don't we?

The minor hockey wind-up meeting was held in the rink on Tuesday night of last week, when the trophies were presented. A trophy was donated this year for the best goal keeper of the season in minor hockey, by Reston Masonic lodge. Elmer Bulloch, worshipful master of Reston lodge, spoke to the meeting for a few minutes explaining our interest in minor hockey and then called on E. J. to present the trophy to Brent Stevens of Pipestone, who kept goal for both the 14 and under and the 16 and under teams, which E. J. felt honored at being asked to do. Brent's father Jim, was a goal keeper of no mean ability in his day. We wish for Brent another good season between the pipes and that he will win the trophy again next year and carry on into the future. Nick Olynk who has taken a keen interest in minor hockey in the six years he has spent in Reston, was presented with a plaque at the close of the meeting in appreciation of his effort. Nick is leaving to take up teaching duties in Killarney.

A party was held in the lounge on Wednesday night, the occasion being the Schurman's 30th wedding anniversary and Aunt Ellie Smith's and E. J.'s birthdays. Corsages were pinned on the ladies after which a contest was held, the winner being Mrs. Anna Wait. Rev. Schurman spoke a few words of birthday congratulations to Aunt Ellie and E. J. and read a poem he said came out of his typewriter after putting a sheet of paper in it. Mrs. J. D. Bulloch extended congratulations and best wishes of us all to the Schurmans, and J. E. extended best wishes to E. J. After suitable replies were given, a delicious lunch was served and a birthday cake was cut. In the blowing out of the candles Aunt Ellie beat E. J. by one candle. Everyone had a good "tuck in". E. J. at the end of the evening complained bitterly that he and Schurman didn't rate a flower in their lapels, so on the regular date of his birthday he had coals of fire heaped on his head, as he received a lovely bouquet of roses among thorns, petunias in an onion bed, and one of dandelions. Ha! ha! (which he appreciated).

Grace Milliken returned from hospital Tuesday afternoon, but was so quiet like a mouse, we didn't hear her. Joyce Paddock sent us a nice case of jars of jelly on Saturday which everyone appreciated. Thanks so much Joyce. We wish you the best in your new home. Will and Flo Campbell, of St. James, Winnipeg, attended the Paddock's sale on Friday and visited other friends. We are always glad to see the Campbell's. Now that the baseball season is well advanced and the tournaments are starting there is a missing link, and that link is the late Earl Scott, formerly of Cromer. One hardly ever went to a good tournament that they didn't see Earl. He coached Cromer team for a good many years and taught the boys how to win and also how to lose and lose gracefully. He was also an ardent curler and you never could be sure you had him beaten 'till after the last rock was thrown. He was always ready for a pleasant chat. We miss him around. A nice new birthday pen arrived to write the Alstone notes with and we do hope it is a better speller than the old one. Also to the tee pee came some nice oat cakes and a miniature tee pee from the 'B' Beeshive which tickled the palate and brightens up the place.

Sharon Hutchison just came in and we got corrected for calling her Sherri, ha, ha. She is a good visitor and brings treats.

Bill and Marg Bulloch had a real good old fashioned birthday dinner on Friday night for dad E. J. with as many of the family in attendance that could make it, also Miss Jackson of Alstone. It was a wonderful party and Dad enjoyed it very much. The four Great Grand Children Keith and Christine were all there. John and Mora Forsyth called at the tee pee on Sunday afternoon to help celebrate Father's day. The Grandchildren left for their home at Sanford in the evening with Kay and Bonnie Guthrie who were home from Winnipeg for the weekend.

A couple of us attended the monthly B. I. meeting at Virden on Sunday night with Rev. Heater and a member of the Clan McClure from Melita. The meeting was a interesting and there was a nice gathering. We had the usual coffee binge at the Lone Star on the way home.

A nice basket of home grown strawberries came to the tee pee on Saturday night. A couple of old used-to-was sure enjoyed them Irene. "Thanks a lot".

Charlie Ashley had a trip to the farm on Sunday which we are sure he still enjoys.

Peggy Walker visited at Pipestone on Monday with her sister Mrs. Charles and came home with a new hair-do.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Jezzard's son Bill in Winnipeg is still improving after all he has come through.

WHY WORK?

As unemployment continues to be one of our national problems, periodically a head of the government will say philosophically — in reference to those who refuse a job paying only $1.65 an hour, "well, if they don't want to work, why should they?" Other intellectual types will echo some dream for the future when, according to them we'll all be on a 3- or 4-day work week and ours will be a great society of leisure.

Is this what we really want?

Any society, all the way from primitive cultures up to the sophisticated and complex North American variety, consists of individuals who are mutually dependent upon each other. We found this out in recent garbage strikes and remember it well from some postal strikes of the past. It is a fact of life that we are interdependent.

The work ethic is not a hang-over from the Puritans. It is fundamentally good for man to work, to have challenges and to meet them, to put his skills against problems. To provide a service to society through work, even if it isn't always the kind of job we would choose if we had a large choice, does give one self-respect and a sense of value. Man needs to contribute something to the general pot, as it were. The insidious effect of continued unemployment is to create first anxiety, then hopelessness, and finally apathy which in turn leads to degeneration of the human being.

Instead of treating unemployment facetiously, heads of state and governments could be seriously involved in developing more beautiful cities with greater public services, thus creating employment. Preventive medicine in the form of gymnasiums, more tennis courts, golf clubs, bicycle roadways, gardens, you name it — where some people can be employed and others find recreation — is another area governments might consider.

As a recent survey from coast to coast reveals, Canadians from labourers to executives, believe the right to do a job should be a fundamental right for all.

UNPERCEIVED ASSET

A queer quirk in the collective Canadian personality is that bilingualism, our possession of two official languages, is widely considered a liability, instead of, as it actually is, a major national asset and cause for pride.

All Canadians are not compelled to know both their country's languages and many Canadians speak neither correctly — but the advantages of some knowledge of both are enormous.

Some of these advantages are practical: the ability to reply in the same language in which one is asked a question; to read La Presse and the Free Press with equal ease; to possess two ways of articulating any idea with the option of using the one which says it best.

Culturally, knowledge of English and French lay open the treasures of the two greatest literatures of the modern world.

But perhaps Canada's two-language status is most valuable when a bilingual Canadian travels. For he can go scarcely anywhere without finding someone who can understand him. In the majority of the new nations of Africa, English or French is almost certain to be one of the official languages. The same is true in the nations of the former British and French empires on the other continents.

Bilingualism is our unperceived asset. We should be enjoying our two languages instead of squabbling over them. Rather than threatening anyone's job for not knowing one of them, we should be devising an educational system through which every Canadian child will learn and love both tongues which are his inheritance.

louse we get strong winds here, and didn't it say in our geography that winds blow towards a storm centre?

Another, to me, odd item that wind and water swirl in opposite directions north and south of the equator.

Heard and overheard: Would do light mouse work. — Also some one said during the Cyprus crisis, "Anyone who understands the situation is completely misinformed." Four year old grandson, Brett Reynolds stepped up on small wall border of their driveway, remarked to his mother, "Isn't that a giant stey for mankind?" Also after watching helicopter lowering and lifting men from hydro towers, he told his dad, "We saw helicopters picking up astronauts from the field."

Home of interest are welcomed. Send them to Reggie at St. Regis Hotel, Winnipeg 1.

●Premier Ed Schreyer will-won't-won't resign over that controversial public financial aid to private and parochial schools... that much is definite.

●It must be tough to be a girl of the female sex in Kenya, Africa... authorities there have decreed that wearing miniskirts or "other provocative Western scanty fashions" is officially banned.

●Movie fans needn't worry about any shortage of crunchy popcorn... the annual harvest in the United States is some 308 million pounds.

●Manitoba will lose one federal seat in the upcoming redistribution... and you don't need more than one guess to figure which one will be lopped off.

Morning temps. hanging around the 40 degree mark reminds me of the July 1st celebration of 50 years of Confederation in Reston. Mr. Colquhoun who used to live in the Sinclair area had on a buffalo coat and I thought he was one of the few seriously dressed for what the weather man dished out.

The Days Gone By

10 YEARS AGO (June 21, 1962)

Walter Dinsdale rolled up a majority of 11,500 votes to win Brandon-Souris Constituency for the Conservatives. The Conservatives lost 91 seats, the Liberals gained 47, the N.D.P. 11 and the Social Credit 30. The Conservatives with 117 will form a minority government.

Bob Cornell of Melita, with a 68 won the championship at the spring tournament at the Reston Golf Club. His run of 32, two under par, was a course record. Lockhart's Garage was robbed for the fifth time in three years on Monday night. Thieves forced the front door and then pried the door off the safe and escaped with a substantial amount of money, but left the cheques.

Allan Bulloch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bulloch, suffered burns to his face and is in hospital with second and third degree burns. The mishap occurred when a group of youngsters were using gasoline to start a bonfire in the Tom Martin pasture just north of Reston on Monday evening. Allan's clothes caught fire and were extinguished when Vernon Cook pushed him into the water.

20 YEARS AGO (June 26, 1952)

The newly organized Tilton baseball club won at Storthoaks taking first money. In the final game against Elmore, Bob Grierson pitched well and his brother Byron hit a home run with two men on the bases for the winning margin. Increased grants were requested at a regional trustees meeting held at Reston on Thursday of last week. The resolution asked that the grant for non-resident high school students be increased from $75.00 to $100.00 and for public school students from $50.00 to $75.00.

The Reston 'Runts' defeated the Ewart 'Pee-Wees' 22 to 20 in a game at Ewart on Thursday night. Ewart-Kenneth Zarn, Bert Zarn, Dave Zarn, Alex Forsyth, Russ Zelm, Gordon Forsyth, Chuck Zelm, Gordon Zelm and Maurice Johnson. The weather observation station has arrived. Minimum and maximum temperatures and rainfall will be recorded. Lyall McMorran is looking after the station. On Friday 80 inches of rain fell which improved crop prospects.

30 YEARS AGO (June 25, 1942)

LAC Keith Dyon, of the R.C.A.F. Goderich, Ont. is spending a leave with his father Charles Dyon at Antler. It is with deep sorrow that we report that Johnnie Sumpton, who is serving with the R.C.A.F. in England, has been reported missing. Pte. George Anderson, R.C.O.C. of Winnipeg, spent the weekend visiting his parents in Tilton. Cold weather and too much moisture has resulted in the gardens being at a standstill last week.

Pte. Dave Zarn of Camp Shilo, is spending a three week furlough at his home in the Ewart district. It is nearly three years since he left the district for Alberta where he has since worked. Many cellars in town are for the first time in many years, bothered with water. The condition is the result of rains and rising water level over the district.

40 YEARS AGO (June 23, 1932)

Manitoba, over a vast area, has the greatest crop of grasshoppers in her history. The nearest outbreak to Pipestone Municipality is at Delau and an outbreak is reported at Hartney, where it is estimated that there are 100 hoppers to the square inch hatching out. Crop conditions remain favorable although a good downfall of that Canadians dwelling in any other province... maybe, with our eight months of tough winter, and four months of unsettled weather, it just seems longer. Prof!

●Overheard in the St. Regis Habitant Coffee Shop: "So, Winnipeg City Council is dickering with the idea of a $1.00 per ticket monthly draw lottery, as a tax relief measure. I reckon that's one of the smartest ideas ever to come out of City Hall."

—REGGIE

According to the usual custom arrangements are being made to hold a community church service in the Catusqua tent on Sunday evening with Rev. J. W. Melvin, M.A., of Napinka, as the guest speaker. The Reston Blues and Reston Seniors played to an 11 all tie on Tuesday evening. Buster McDougall came through with a home run. Andy Rutherford made a swell catch in center field and Mike Boulton caught, batted and out them to second with his usual skill. W. A. Devanny called the balls and strikes.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor,
Reston Recorder

The opinions in the letter published last week and signed "Citizen" which implies that the dine and dances sponsored by the Reston Lions Club, for they are presently the only organization sponsoring such events — are corrupting the morals of the young people is, of course, ridiculous.

The reference to the Alcoholics Anonymous meeting and the implication that organization is against such activities where liquor is sold, is in our opinion, erroneous. This fine organization does not condemn persons for drinking, but rather considers alcoholism as a disease to which certain people are susceptible.

In this day and age, when alcohol is legally available to persons 18 years and over, there are few persons indeed who reach the age of majority that do not at least experiment with the use of alcohol. In fact, many do not reach that age, before they at least try it.

All parents are concerned, I am sure, but the solution does not seem to be the cancelling of dine and dance programs. And since the problem of excess in the use of alcohol has been with us since the times of Moses, there does not appear to be any easy solution.

The Lions Club has done a great deal of fine work in this community and certainly deserves a great deal of credit, and to imply they are corrupting the young is unreasonable. Non-drinker & non-member summer playground.

This summer take the family, take to the highway, and travel north for fun and adventure and for exciting new sights in Northern Manitoba.

Besides the ever-attractive, ever-changing majestic beauty of Manitoba's northland, you and your family will discover new communities and make new friends. And be sure to take the time to attend some of the fun-time events that take place in the North each summer.

In Flin Flon, the famous Trout Festival is on from June 30th to July 9th. Thompson celebrates Nickel Days, July 14th to July 17th. And Opasquia Indian Days is on at The Pas from August 16th to August 19th. Remember, too, that each summer, there are special railway excursion rates to take you to Manitoba's seaport, Churchill on Hudson Bay.

North of '53 is not just a geographical location. It is also a state of mind. The spirit of the frontier is still very much alive in Manitoba's northland. And, though Northern Manitoba is a wilderness country, it is a friendly wilderness that has been brought within easy reach through modern paved highways. This summer, take the family and take to the highway and discover Manitoba — north of '53. For free information on Manitoba's northland, please write:

The Forsyth Saga

(from the Morris-MacDonald Teacher)

Eight years ago Dr. Cuddy buttonholed a young chap and, as long as the late Dr. Cuddy was chairman of the Sanford Board, he made certain that Jack Forsyth and Jack's staff were kept as happy as possible. To other teachers in the area this was apparent in a salary schedule that was always a little better than surrounding schools. Dr. Cuddy and his board knew they had a hold of a good one and even with the change in division setup, Jack has never changed his pace. If anything, it has accelerated. This guy was everywhere.

Jack coached collegiate basketball for 4 years and captured two Varsity B and one Junior basketball championship — his elementary basketball team has an enviable record of 30 wins and no losses — his VII & VIII's have won Zone IV cross country championships.

Jack Forsyth is convenor of the local track meet, chairman of the Morris-MacDonald Athletic Association, the R.M. of MacDonald Recreation Committee; on the exec. of the MacDonald baseball team (4 years), and the Sanford Recreation Committee; is registrar/statistician secretary of the Manitoba Senior Baseball League; a referee with Manitoba Football Officials Association (6 years) etc.

He also taught driver training for 5 years and organized and conducted seven extended educational tours for his students — 4 within Man., 2 to Thunderbay, and this year his off to Ottawa, Montreal and Quebec. (It'll cost each of his students about $33.00).

Jack served on the salary negotiating committee for two years and on the Provincial MTS Judicial Committee for six years.

This year Jack received his degree as a result of many years of summer school and evening session.

One thing about Jack — besides teaching, being principal and involved in community and sports activities, he always had time to attend meetings and contribute to Division Association activities. (Holds the record for most contributions to division newsletter.)

Perhaps the only one happy to see him leave is his opposition in elementary basketball — having Jack as coach was worth an extra player to his team.

(Editor's note: Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Forsyth, of Reston and has accepted the position of assistant principal of the Hartney Collegiate).

A special thanks to Mrs. Bieber for feeding us in January when everything was in a mess. Ben and Darlene Watkins and boys.

We would like to thank our many friends who called on us on our 25th. Special thanks to all the ladies who worked so hard by serving and preparing the tea and supper. Names of the evening service who were omitted in last week's paper were Vera Berry, Shirley Menzies, Jean Jezzard and Betty Jean Lazenby.

Thanks to the Sturby's who brought their greetings "by air" and entertained our supper guests with an aircraft performance. Also a "thank you" to the ladies of the Linklater Guild who sponsored the wolverine roast on Wednesday evening and to those who came and made such an enjoyable evening—and for the donations and gifts we received. All added to make our 25th anniversary a happy and memorable one. Sincerely, Ross and Kate McMurchy YUHAHA—In loving memory of our father and grandfather, Thomas John, who passed away June 21, 1958. What would we give to hold his hand. His happy face to see. To hear his voice and see his smile. —Ever remembered by the family.

JONES—In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, Edward Thomas, who passed away, June 27, 1971. Memories live not for a day. Nor as a dream to pass away. Loves greatest gift holds silent tears. And lingers on through passing years. —Ever remembered by the family.
