RESTON—The Reston United Church on Sunday evening, Oct. 22nd was filled to capacity for an "Amazing Grace" service where the combined choirs of Reston Catholic, Anglican and United Church of the area sang three anthems; and Mrs. Ella Stevens, of Pipestone, sang "Amazing Grace." The congregation also had an opportunity to sing in five old favorite hymns.

Rev. Fr. Foran spoke under the title "Is Man Fully Alive," asking for full concern for all people, while Rev. D. Hester spoke under the title, "Our Common Salvation in Christ" quoting the favourite verse of the ages, John 3:16.

The evening finished with a special time in the Church Hall. Many commented that this type of event should happen more often.

We do too.

Tax collections are excellent

RESTON—Tax collections are excellent and may reach 110% of the current levy, Wm. W. Busby, sec-treas., of the R. M. of Pipestone, said at the ratepayers meeting held in the Masonic Hall on Thursday with an attendance of 60.

Reeve Carl Wedow in his remarks credited the excellent collection rate to the fact that the grain was moving freely and that a good crop had been harvested despite dry conditions in some portions of the municipality.

Reeve Wedow said that considerable time had been spent setting up the road-work program for the year, and that to help implement it, a D77 Caterpillar Tractor had been purchased at a cost of $53,000.00. Some thought had been given to trading in the Hancock machine, but it had been retained and in certain conditions moved more dirt than the other machines.

The reeve said that a Veteran's Clinic had finally been set up at Virden and the municipality had contributed to this venture. A grant of $5,000.00 had been made to the Altona Building Fund for enlargement of the structure.

The municipal district meeting had been held this year at Reston and was jointly hosted by the R. M. of Albert and the R. M. of Pipestone. The cost to the R. M. was $121.50.

On the matter of the grant requested for the Keystone Center, one-half mill for five years, totalling $20,000.00 the council was unanimous. It had been initiated in the Recorder that the council was split on the issue.

Reeve Wedow issued an invitation to all to attend the official opening of the West-Man Nursing Home at Virden on Sunday. Mr. Wedow was chairman of the board which constructed this building and there were several Reston residents in it now.

Financial statement was read by Wm. Busby which showed assets of $956,598.70. Expenditures to Sept. 30 were $443,549.88 out of the total budget of $534,155.76.

The councillors gave their reports. Jack Guthrie of ward 1 stated that he had travelled 27½ miles and doesn't know whether the road machinery will make it to his ward this year. He stated the formation of the Reston U. V. D. had lightened his work.

Wilson Skelton in ward 2 had expended between $12,000 and $13,000 on road building with the municipal machinery and he had also done some graveling.

Jim Milliken, in ward 3 stated that he had the best roads in the municipality. This year his work had been limited to graveling, using 1600 yards on 13 miles and also he had stock piled 1500 yards. He used crushed gravel and was of the opinion that it was a good investment.

Harold Forger, ward 4, had expended $10,454.00 on roads. He had gravelled 10 miles and planned more graveling.

Elmer Shoemaker in ward 5, had about 500 hours of work done. He had gravelled 16 miles at a cost of $1980.00 and some work remained to be done on a boundary road.

Murray Hogg, of Cromer, the ward 6 councillor reported the graveling of five miles of road and presently the machinery was working in his ward. Weather conditions would determine the amount of work done.

Reeve Wedow interjected following the Councillors report to say that conditions were favorable for road work and that he had suggested that the public works account be overexpended by $10,000.00, if favorable weather continues.

Art Smith, weed supervisor, in his remarks told of finding two new weeds in the municipality. One Scutellaria Chamomile, is confined to a small patch in the northern part of the R. M. of Pipestone and is very difficult to control. The other is in the southern part of the area, having worked north from the States, it is Nodding Thistle and is also a control problem. He asked the co-operation of farmers to control these weeds.

Gordon Smith chaired the meeting and Wm. W. Busby acted as secretary.

Following the meeting lunch was served to the nearly 50 attending by the ladies of the Hillview U. C. W.

Driver escapes injury when car hits pole

RESTON—Kevin Phillips, an employee of the Nelson River Construction Co. escaped injury when the 1968 Chevrolet car he was driving left the road and hit a hydro pole just to the east of the intersection of Reston's main street and No. 2 highway.

The R.C.M.P. detachment at Reston, told the Recorder that a charge will be laid because of the accident.

The mishap occurred about six a.m. Monday, Oct. 16th. The car hit the hydro pole right in the middle, pushing the grill and radiator back into the motor.

Mr. Phillips, whose home address is Sudbury, Ont., is reported to have gone to sleep. The Nelson River Co. are presently repaving No. 2 highway in the Sinclair area and have a camp there. He was returning to work.

Mr. & Mrs. G. Pringle are honoured

HILLVIEW—Mr. and Mrs. George Pringle were honored at a social evening held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Guthrie. They have left the Hillview district and are residing in Reston.

Jackie Guthrie planned a corsage of red roses on Mrs. Pringle and a red rose boutonniere on Mr. Pringle.

Contests and games were enjoyed by the 63 people who attended.

Mr. Jack Guthrie and Mrs. Lily Wilson made the presentation of a wall mirror to the honoured couple and expressed best wishes to them in their new home.

A lovely lunch brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

ALSTONE NOTES

by E. J. Guthrie

The United Church was filled to capacity on Sunday evening with members of three denominations to celebrate the occasion of the 53rd Sunday in the year which happens every so often. The three choirs combined for the service and the choir loft was bursting at the seams. It is a long time since we have heard so many wonderful voices singing together. It was a real treat. We would like to pay special tribute to Ella Stevens, of Pipestone, for her rendering of "Amazing Grace" and to Rev. Hester for the singing of "Goodness and Mercy" with the choir taking up the chorus. We received two short but inspiring sermons from Father Foran and Rev. Hester during the evening which were very much to the point. The congregation consisted of people from many surrounding towns and districts, Pipestone in "large numbers" as well as folk from Sinclair and Antler and no doubt some from over by Virden, to name a few as well as numbers from Reston. After the service everybody went to the church basement where a dainty lunch and tea and coffee were served where everyone could get better acquainted and have a good visit. And blessed if you could tell one religious denomination from another. We think that's the way it should be and that more of such gatherings should be arranged in the future.

Rev. Schurman held a short service in the lounge on Sunday afternoon for the benefit of those of us who couldn't attend the evening service, giving us a little inclination of what was going to take place. His talk was along similar lines to that of Father Foran and Rev. Hester. Flora Scott and Mrs. McMorran both attended, with Mrs. McMorran at the organ. We thank Flora Scott for taking some of us to the evening service.

We are glad to hear that Rene Schurman is home again to Reston after her illness south of the border. She flew to Minot where Ernie met her and while she has had to go to Reston Hospital to shake of a bit of cold she contacted, we feel that she will soon be out and about again. (Cheer up Rene).

Cliff and Lil Coneley, of Glenboro, visited Sunday with Lil's mom Mrs. Jezzard at Alstone and also with Frank and Jean at Linklater.

Miss Olive Nash, of Virden, visited with Mrs. Smith of Alstone on Sunday and spent the night with her.

John D. and Clara Bulloch had the flu for two or three days last week. Did you not know folks that there is something you can take as a preventative for that, ha, ha.

Mary Winch took some of the girls over to Virden last Thursday to visit with her mom and dad Chris and Goldie Lau at the new nursing home. The Lau's reported that they liked the new home and were very comfortable.

Kay and Bonnie Guthrie, of Winnipeg, visited Grandpa at the tee pee on Thursday. They were on holidays at the west coast where they visited with their aunts the three Kay sisters and their families. They left for Winnipeg on Friday to get in a couple of days rest before going back to work on Monday.

We can now report (truthfully this time) that the cement is poured for the new addition to our building and preparations are being made to start the structure. We hear the electric saw going today.

Several people have wondered if Burnett even got that fifty dollars out of his wife. We bet he goes on a real binge if and when he does.

Some of us attended a farewell party held at Jack and Muriel Guthrie's in the Hillview district to honor George and Ethel Pringle who are leaving the farm and moving to Reston. A real happy evening was spent in games and fun. George and Ethel were presented with a lovely mirror on behalf of the people of Hillview with Jack Guthrie reading the address to the couple and Lil Wilson making the presentation. George made an appropriate reply and issued an invitation to one and all to visit him and Ethel in their new home in Reston. The honored couple have been an asset to the Hillview Community for well onto thirty years and are leaving a large pair of shoes for their son Jim and his wife to fill, they having taken over the farm.

The saw and some hammers are going this morning (Tues.) on some frame work for the new building.

THE BIG DECISION

Come next Monday, October 30th the voters of Canada will decide what party will be in power in Ottawa and we urge the electors to exercise their right, and hopefully that they won't have as much difficulty as the writer in making up their minds how to vote.

To listen to the various campaigners it would appear that they have the answer to Canada's problems, and all parties seem to be trying to out-do the other in promising more spending, less taxes and more employment, but somehow we feel whatever party wins their performance will not match their promises.

As we are having so much difficulty in deciding our choice, and also due to the fact that occasionally we enjoy going to the horse races, we will stick out our neck and rate them as would a handicapper.

In Brandon - Souris:
Dinsdale Will never be headed Belecki Maybe another time
Singleton A distant third
Lea Will be left at the post
And in the Federal:
Trudeau Gets the nod
Stanfield Much improved over his last race
Lewis An also ran
Conquette Will be far behind
Best bet: Dinsdale

NEW SOLUTIONS

Canadian labor and management will be keenly watching experiments at Volvo, the Swedish auto maker, which is throwing out the assembly line and building two new brightly painted and multi-windowed plants.

Teams of 20 workers will build entire units of a car there — brakes, wheels, steering mechanism, etc. . . . instead of one man shooting one rivet. Emphasis will be on team relationships and pride of workmanship.

Bothered by absenteeism, wild-cattening and high employee turnover, Volvo is attempting to make working conditions more pleasant and meaningful. Estimates are that work time per car will be the same as on the assembly line.

Dehumanization has crept into the executive suite as well as the assembly line in many industries, and radical, creative solutions are needed. Industry is reeling under the pressure of highly-trained workers with large expectations churned out by modern education systems. They want jobs to "mean" something. Repetitive boredom of the assembly line and executive decisions usurped by sophisticated computers is showing itself by unrest at the top—and walk-outs, high drug and alcohol rates, absenteeism and sloppiness on the line.

So little brain power is needed on some jobs that a pigeon was trained by psychologists to move imperfect pills and transistors off an assembly line with its beak! Labour experts say wages and benefits are rarely the cause of strikes any more—the sickness goes deeper to a feeling of being converted into machines by boring unpleasant work.

and slough bottom. They were in the fields, on hay bales and a couple were perched in trees! Hunters aren't going to take too many when they behave this way. We saw three coveys of Hungarian, one with about 15 birds, another with six and another with four. Also saw the largest number of mallards for this year. There were from 400 to 500 birds in a slough that they had obviously kept open for there was ice a couple of inches thick along the edges. Bagged 7 of them, that is Don Ready, Ed Hulme, both of Brandon and my editor, Darcy Ready was another member of the party, but being too young to shoot, his role was that of a retriever and he did a good job.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

1703 East 37th Ave.,
Vancouver, B.C.

Dear Prairie friends:
We are having beautiful Indian Summer weather day after day, cool nights, even ground frost; then lovely sunny, quiet days. There is snow on our north shore mts. but the weatherman promises many more sunny days.

Late in July we bought a 14 ft. Triple E. travel trailer, entirely self contained and set out for Manitoba and Gimli in particular for the Aug. 7th Ice-landie Festival which was special this year as a brass band of over thirty members from Reyjavik, Iceland was on a good will tour in Canada and would be special guests in Gimli that day.

It rained all day long which did spoil things but we met many old friends and enjoyed the Band immensely. The following Wednesday, Aug. 9th we heard them again at the Icelandic Ball in the new Centennial Hall in Winnipeg where about 2500 people gathered.

We spent a week in Winnipeg parking our trailer on the boulevard beside Charlie and Eleanor Allpress in St. Vital. Eleanor was a former Ebor resident. Her father, Mr. Slater was postmaster there for many years. While there we experienced a cloud burst—in about ten minutes there was close to 2 ft. of water in the intersection. We visited many old friends in Winnipeg. Had lunch at Eaton's one day with Jessie and Edna (Colquhoun) friends since Bardal school days, also Mr. and Mrs. Bob Colquhoun of Virden, who happened to be in Winnipeg. Bob pulled out a clipping from the Recorder and this was a picture of my cousin Erwin Johnson, formerly of Bardal and Sinclair, who grew to be close to 8 ft. tall and for some years travelled with a circus. I understand many enquiries and reminiscences had been appearing about him.

He retired from circus life many years ago and has been living in Orlo Vista, Florida. I understand this is a small place where retired show people reside. For many years he was Chief of the Orlo Vista volunteer fire dept. I once read a letter written by a minister to his mother who said Erwin was convalescing at his home after being hospitalized following a fire in which he had gone beyond the call of duty to fight. Erwin just isn't a letter writer.

His mother seldom heard from him. I've sent cards etc. every Christmas so when none came back felt he must have received them and all was well with him. We phoned him one New Year's when my parents were still living. He sounded just the same as before. We tried to phone again last July but couldn't locate him so I wrote to the Orlo Vista Fire Dept. and recently received a very nice letter from the Assistant Chief, who says: Hi Johnson as he is called, lives next door and has a T.V. repair shop, that he is doing very well, has many friends who look in on him. He hasn't been feeling too well as he had a heart attack last year that laid him up for several weeks. If anyone would like to write to him then I'm sure he would enjoy hearing from you. His address is Mr. H. Johnson, P.O. Box 18221, Orlando, Florida 32811.

Well to go on with our trip. From Winnipeg we went to Gladstone, Man., where my niece Karol Johnson (Karl's oldest) now lives. She was married to the Erikdale Hospital, married the administrator there Reg Henrotte. He is now Sec. Treas. of the Gladstone School Unit. From there we went to Langruth where we visited among others, Gunna (Thordarson) Einarson, formerly of Sinclair, also Runa Oddson, who also hailed from the Sinclair area many years ago. We turned homeward after this, called in on Walter Armstrong in the Assiniboine Hospital, Brandon. Then on to Reston where we had supper with Bernice and Baxter Buby, spent a nice hour with Bjossi Josephson in Sinclair, bought gas from Frank Thiesen's son, Frank Thiesen bought our old home farm in the Ebor district.

That night we parked in the yard beside the Josephson house and electricity. After this we had many happy and sad memories for both of us.

Next day we visited our old home where now stands a lovely new house. We were amazed at the good roads everywhere—no problem with a low slung car and trailer in tow.

We went on into Ebor which has passed on—no longer on the map as there is almost nothing there—no store, school closed, no post office, station & station house gone, as are the three elevators. The house we lived had been used to store grain. I have many happy memories of Ebor and the many fine people who lived there and the many who still live in the surrounding district. We called on Lloyd and Hogene White and had dinner with them. They were in the process of getting a brand new house which would be placed exactly where the old house stood. The old house would just be moved off its foundation and the new one already built put on. They'll have all city conveniences such as plumbing and electricity. After a brief call at the John Hitchcock home we went on through Maryfield and to Moosomin where my dad's sister now 86, Mrs. Carrie Richardson lives. She is still a real live wire—loves to play her fiddle (violin) and has played at Old time contests or amateur concerts three or four hundred people and loves it.

The next day we stopped at Churchbridge with Harry and Valla Marvin. Spent the night at a man-made lake just west of Yorkton at a Camp site, a lovely place. Then we travelled the Yellowhead highway to Saskatoon, stopped to visit at Foam Lake and Elfron. There was a lot of road construction going on between Churchbridge and Saskatoon—huge equipment mostly widening the highway—we travelled through gravel and oil for miles.

We spent a night at Drumheller, Alta., where our sons-in-law live. They drove us all over Drumheller, which is really quite a place, about 5000 people I believe. The town is in a sort of bowl. It was very hot and humid and mosquitoes were enjoying themselves. The next night we stopped at a campsite just east of Revelstoke, B.C. About 1 a.m. a black bear came to call. We thought he was going to rip the door off our trailer. Egil yelled so loud he almost scared me out of my skin! However the bear ambled away and we didn't lose any time leaving. The next place we stopped at just off the highway happened to be near train tracks and the noise of the freight was so loud you'd think the end of the world was near! So we left there and there was little sleep that night.

We called on friends at Salmon Arm, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Forsang, formerly from Lake Manitoba, Ashcroft area. They treated us royally. Bill took us over to Doug and Dorothy Pigott's and Howard and his wife came over. It was so nice to see the boys. I knew them as little fellows when they lived in the Bardal district. There were many more in Salmon Arm, Vernon and Kelowna we would have enjoyed seeing but we were getting tired and homesick. So we headed for home—stopped briefly at my sister Elsa's in Port Coquitlam. She had just had the misfortune of breaking an ankle that day and was laid up with a cast up to her knee. She had stepped off a ladder too soon, third step up, thought she was at the bottom. Then we had to say Hello to our daughter and three granddaughters in Coquitlam. They have now moved to Vancouver Island. Also stopped to say Hello to our son Herman and his wife. Home at last and how heavenly to jump into your own bath tub full of lovely soft Vancouver water. We had found the water so horrible in many places.

We took eight days going east and eight days coming back. Enjoyed travelling this way very. We were always at home, wherever we stopped.

Astros S. Nygaard.

Reggie's Ramblings

● President Nixon is campaigning against television black-outs of sold out USA sporting events. That's an idea some bright Canadian politician might latch onto. Winnipeg Bombers had a half dozen games all sold out long before game time . . . but the usual television black-outs was the rule.

● Large headline in a Canadian "national" magazine reads "Lester Pearson" . . . fame is fleeting!

● McGovern accuses Nixon of "hiding out" in the White House instead of coming out & jumping into the presidential election fight . . . no doubt McG. wishes he had a hidey-hole in there instead of Nixon.

● All those lovely smiling "teller" girls seen on bank television commercials . . . wonder why we don't see them in our bank?

● A noted journalist says Queen Elizabeth should retire at 50 and hand the crown over to Prince Charles . . . that journalist might get him in the face if the Queen told him what he should do.

● Confucius say: "There are some people who do not understand a subject, but invent things out of their own heads."

● Quite a few women candidates among the one thousand odd running in the federal election, and enough women voters in every riding to elect quite a lot of them . . . if they really want more women in political office.

● Politicians sure make things tough for those who like a quiet life . . . Election Returns on one night, and Halloween stunts the next.

● Quercosity of Nature . . . She makes a cabbage just about the same size as a man's head.

● Have you seen a Just-A-Buck? Issued by authority of the Bank of Just Society, printed by the Fiddle-Dee-Dee Bank Note Co. Ltd. Similar to a dollar bill, it's bilingual, has a portrait of Pierre Trudeau instead of the Queen, and carries the inscription "Just let Me Try once more." It's only a political gag . . . but a reminder of the famous 92¢ cents Diefenbucks of 1962.

● Don't put too much faith in logic providing an answer to any and every problem . . . life itself is not logical.

● Must be something extra-special in the Carman atmosphere! Last year, at Carman, an albino gopher was seen; last Spring, a white squirrel; this Fall, an albino robin . . . surely a Ripley "Believe it or not" item!

● Old friends were pleased to see Bill Philipson back to hand his cigar counter in the ST. REGIS, after his long sojourn in hospital. Also to see the now-retired rotunda polisher - upper, Tommy Ewing - who says, "Bet the Cincinnati Reds win the World Series."

The Days Gone By

16 YEARS AGO (Nov. 1, 1952)

The contract has been let for the construction of a well to supply the Reston L. I. D. with water and for the pipeline from the well about 200 yards north of the bridge over the Pipestone Creek on the Reston - Wood-north road to the water treatment plant in Reston. The pipeline is about 1½ miles long. . . . After a delay of some weeks because of wet weather the harvest of the remaining flax fields commenced on Sunday and by Tuesday it was completed. . . . The Reston Band, with 31 members, six majorettes, Bandmaster Max White and three drivers were guests of the Birtle Chamber of Commerce for supper at the Hotel Robert on Saturday, Oct. 30th. The band and majorettes were part of the attraction for the Crazy Days Shopping Spree at Birtle. . . . Four hundred and fifty head went through the sale ring at Pipestone on Wednesday of last week, with 170 going to American buyers. Top price was $31.35 for steer calves in the 300 to 400 pound range.

20 YEARS AGO (Oct. 30, 1952)

Reston streets were treated with approximately 4000 gallons of crude oil from the Daly field on Friday of last week. Treated were the main street, railway avenue, the hospital street and others. More will be treated in the near future to alleviate the dust problems. . . . Doug Watt broke up the cement cribbing on a well last week in preparation for the installation of a steel crib. A frog which had been imprisoned in the cement, which was poured sixteen months ago was released from the cement and appeared to be quite lively. . . . N. Harvey was elected as councillor for Township 5 in the R.M. of Stor-thoika. He places G. Orsted who resigned. . . . J. P. Duncan was elected as councillor for Ward 2 in the election last week. . . . Mrs. Jack Walker has an industrious spring pullet. It started laying early and hatched seven chicks this week.

30 YEARS AGO (Oct. 26, 1942)

A convoy of 274 with 80 vehicles representing a million dollars in equipment visited Pipestone on Thursday morning. Major Hicks was in charge and the group were welcomed by Councillor Hugh Macintyre, W. Halhead, president of the Canadian Legion and C. S. Hewitt, president of the Patriotic Society. Bandmen Henry Gatand and F. Usunier were the local boys in the group. Coffee and donuts were served to the entire troop. . . . The cold weather has resulted in ice on the ponds and a number of boys took advantage of the situation to do some skating and also hockey practice on the gravel pit. . . . Ducks are more plentiful than for a number of years and some good shoots have been reported. The season for pheasants opens on Friday and continues until Nov. 4. The birds are plentiful and widely distributed.

40 YEARS AGO (Oct. 30, 1932)

Unless taxes come in freely there is a chance that the school term in some school districts will be cut. The price of eggs have improved. The Virden Creamery is now paying 21c for extras and 18c for No. 1s. . . . Egbert Berry left on Monday for Winnipeg to resume his studies. . . . The Chicken hunters were out in full force on the opening day and for so early in the season, the birds were unusually wild and wary and as a result few good bags were secured. The fear was expressed that the Hungarian Partridge should be further protected but this fear has no foundation in fact, as the birds are not easy to get and are well able to look after themselves. Only an epidemic of some kind will thin their ranks as the gunners will be unable to do so. . . . The Reston Swine Club will hold their show at the Reston Fair grounds on Oct. 22nd starting at 10 a.m. and the public are invited.

50 YEARS AGO (Oct. 26, 1922)

In the late hours of Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning forced entry to the bank at Pipestone but were unable to obtain any money through the efforts of Constable Tulloch and private citizens. Shots were exchanged however, before the robbers left. The fact that the telephone wires were cut has prevented the Recorder from obtaining more details as we go to press. (Note: Berry's Barber Shop in Reston is the building which served as a bank at Pipestone at the time. Petters holes were visible under the windows at one time) . . . The threshing was completed by Saturday night and it is estimated that 60% of the wheat has been delivered to the elevators. . . . Mr. A. E. Hetherington's Grey-Dort car was destroyed by fire on Monday. The vehicle was being filled with gasoline at Fleck's Garage at Pipestone when the tank overflowed, causing an explosion was pulled from the building.

By Friday morning all Reston elevators were filled to the top. The yards were full of empties but so limited are the side tracks that the elevator men are having a hard time getting the empties spotted. . . . Threshing operations began in earnest on Monday after being delayed by the high wind on Saturday. . . . Chicken hunters were out in full force for the last days of the season (Saturday) but found the birds wild and wary, but still in great numbers. The birds are found in large flocks and are hard to get near. . . . Owing to the scarcity of fat cattle in this district Mr. A. E. Smith, the local butcher shipped in a car from Wawota for local consumption. . . . The G. S. Munro Co. are offering the best quality sheep lined Corduroy coats at $12.00 each. The lining is the best quality clipped sheep skin and comes to the bottom of the coat. The collar is 7 inches high of nice soft Beaverette.

The Editor's Jotbook

An usual sighting for this time of the year—a Snowy Owl. It was seen by Don Ready on Saturday while driving from Brandon to Reston, and was perched on a haystack and was easily identified with the use of field glasses. Is the lemming population in the north at a low ebb. It is usually the only reason the Snowys come south, and usually later in the season than this. Maybe our outdoor columnist Rambler will correct us on this. . . . Another sighting was a Golden Eagle seen by Keith Clark, of Brandon at Oak Lake on Monday. Keith also saw two Ravens, unusual for these parts. . . . On sightings saw more Sharp-tail Grouse on Saturday than the week before, possibly 30 to 35 birds in all, and must say that they are well educated. Despite the relatively warm and sunshine between 11:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. the birds were in their usual cover, the willows

With a goodly number of others I attended the Ecumenical service in Reston on Sunday evening. At a time when so much controversy in our national life tends to separate us, it is a comforting feeling that higher and more worthwhile loyalties still have a hold on our ideals even if we fall time and again in actual practice.

The united choir and the common heritage of well known hymns produces a feeling of brotherhood that has so often been sadly lacking.

I do feel that congregational singing is becoming a lost art. Such a gathering should have been able to produce volume that would have made the roof vibrate!

Probably it was partly the mate (rough) was that the lack of male voices. My estimates outnumbered us three to one. Couldn't say that it was peculiar to any denomination. How many of us have our religion (I would like to be able to use the word Christianity) in our wives names?

No. 264

Are we heading towards a heavy winter? That is the question to ponder in view of three recent observations.

Last week Sid Jago saw a Raven leisurely flying southward over his farm. I agree with Sid that it is very early for any bird of this species to crawl around this neck of the woods unless it got lost in these woods on the way north last spring and has been wandering in circles trying to get out of them since then.

Two muskrat houses I saw recently showed size and structure that were quite astonishing. It may be that the relative lack of fall rains to date is reason for high and heavy-domed structures being made by muskrats. However, it seems reasonable that animal intuition as may be possessed by these rodents acts in terms of natural conditions of longer time range than early fall rains. Hence, a few muskrats may be forerunning of a tough season ahead.

The final observation is the report of a highly reputed weather scientist who has been studying Canadian temperature statistics extending back through the past century. According to him, the winters between 1930 and 1960 were relatively mild, on the average. During the previous thirty years, winters were relatively severe, on the average. Further weather studies tend to support the scientist's contention that we can expect winters that, for another eighteen years, will, on the average, be relatively severe. Assuming then this winter may be such a one, it is well to be forewarned and allowed time enough to sew together the buffalo robes we shall throw over house, horse, hedge and harrow!

Despite these dire forecasts, there have been recent sightings and incidents enough to warm many a heart, at least, while anticipating a rigidly frigid winter.

The same day that Sid Jago saw the Raven, Maurice Shank spotted a Bluebird on the farm. As the bird was in flight, there was no doubt about its identity, or else it might have been a Robin turned blue with expected cold.

Early the next morning Jack Russell observed a really red moon low in the west. Its heated appearance at that early time of the day, and before any blushing dawn, suggests there may have been smoke from bush or field fires meandering up the atmosphere enough to cause moonlight to be screened. Such a strain on the moon would likely cause it to suffer a ruptured blood vessel, and so the reddish cast to its face.

That day too, clean-up in our garage and yard brought to view a wriggling cocoon — that's a semi-frozen caterpillar — and a miniature wasp nest, measuring scarcely over two inches across. Fortunately there was no lively active denizen in the nest, all sensible wasps having migrated to the south pole, where there's a heat leak from the center of the earth.

Then last Sunday in the course of a drive, our No. 1 bird-watching son clicked-off on the counter 1 Flicker, 1 Robin (just east of Reston Park), 1 Nuthatch, 1 Meadowlark, 2 Marsh Hawks, 7 Horned Larks, 9 Ducks (flying), 24 Starlings and 48 Magpies. To make things even more springy Monday brought to a feeding station on the east side of town 3 Evening Grosbeaks, 1 White-breasted Nuthatch, 1 Golden-crowned Kinglet, 1 Slate-colored Junco and Chickadees.

Incidentally, it is peculiarly early for Evening Grosbeaks to be here at this time. Generally they arrived somewhat later in the season when it's colder, when snow is flying, and when even the sun hates to get up in the morning. Say, maybe we had better throw another tree on the fire. But how can we? Trees are busily committing suicide so that farmers will have more grain for Pierre T. to tell us about, and we don't want to miss that! That will make us very warm, don't you think?

Yours naturally,

RAMBLER

Formation of rink district approved

RESTON — The formation of a rink district with an east boundary at 7/27 and west to the Saskatchewan border and approximately eight miles in depth was approved at the election meeting Thursday. The district would be set up to support the Reston Rink on a tax basis, if such is necessary.

Under the existing legislation the council of the R. M. of Pipestone would have the power to levy up to one mill in this district for the maintenance of the Reston Rink. A mill would raise something over $3,000.00 in the assessment in this area.

Wm. Busby, who is also secretary of the rink committee expressed the hope that it may not be necessary to levy, but the machinery is now available if needed.

The question of a grant to the Keystone Center was quickly turned down.

Could You Keep Your Farm in the Family Under Trudeau's Tax Laws?

Think about it!

If you are counting on the proceeds of selling your farm within your family, to enable you to retire in modest comfort...

If you are planning on leaving your farm to your children...

Think Again!

The Trudeau government has imposed laws that will force your estate, if you die to pay capital gains tax on the increase in the value of your farm, as though you had sold it at market value at the time of your death. If you sell the farm within your family, you will also pay capital gains tax on the basis of market value, regardless of the price at which you actually sell.

The value of your farm was pegged for purposes of this tax on December 31, 1971. Half of any gain over this value will be taxed as income when you sell it or when you die. To "compensate" for inflation, you may deduct a basic $1,000, plus an additional $1,000 for each year after 1971 that you own the farm and live on it. This allowance won't begin to cover increases in value likely to occur in the next few years, particularly with rampant inflation.

You are well aware that your costs have been going up—but your income hasn't. And now the growth in value of your farm is to be taxed away as well.

WALTER DINSDALE and the PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE PARTY are concerned about this, and are dedicated to two goals:

—The expansion of agriculture as a profitable industry.

—The preservation of the family farm as a way of life.

A PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE GOVERNMENT WOULD ENSURE THAT THE CAPITAL GAINS TAX DOES NOT APPLY TO AVERAGE SIZE FARMS WITHIN A FAMILY UNIT. THAT'S A COMMITMENT!

Robert Stanfield

Sale of Sanderson School site approved at recent meeting of Fort La Bosse board

VIRIDEN—Bylaw No. 6/72 approving the sale of the Sanderson school site to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pengelly received first, second and third reading at a regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Fort La Bosse School Division No. 41 held recently.

The Sanderson school was closed at the end of last June due to lack of enrolment. The four elementary grade students now residing in the Sanderson area attend school in Viriden this year. The Sanderson School has been moved into Viriden and is located next to the Junior High School where it replaces a temporary classroom that was being rented.

At the same meeting, the Board of Trustees accepted with regret the resignations of Mrs. I. Colquhoun, of the Viriden Sharratt, of the Sinclair school. Both resignations came about as a result of poor health.

Mrs. Irene Campbell, of Viriden, was appointed to fill the vacancy created by Mrs. Colquhoun's resignation.

R. J. Durand, of Oak Lake and C. Lyons, of Viriden were appointed as custodians at the Assiniboine School and Viriden Junior High respectively. The vacancies came about as a result of the retirement of G. Conway and Joe Wood and the transfer of C. Winnill from the Assiniboine School to the Oak Lake Junior High. Appointments take effect on November 1, 1972. Salary increases for the custodial staff in the schools were approved by the Board.

A written report from the new attendance officer, Wayne Nelson, was read at the Board meeting. The report indicated that 13 cases of student non or poor attendance were investigated during the month of September.

Much discussion centred around the use of school facilities by community organizations. The Board of Trustees are of the opinion that such school facilities should be used as much as possible. In some schools such extra use of the schools may necessitate more caretaking. The caretaking committee is to bring in a report at the next board meeting.

The Board reviewed and approved a list of recommendations that will be presented to the new incoming board for its consideration. The new board consisting of nine members, 3 more than at present, will be sworn in on November 8, 1972.

H. W. Chornoboy, superintendent of schools will attend a planning workshop on educational facilities in Winnipeg later this month. The workshop will consider such topics as Modernize or Replace, Found Space and Furniture for Early Childhood, and The Community—A Learning Resource. Resource persons from the United States and Canada will be available at the workshop.

Three resolutions from Fort La Bosse will be presented to the 1972 fall convention of the Manitoba Association of School Trustees. One resolution requests the government to embark upon a program to educate the travelling motorist with respect to Section 128(5) of the Highway Traffic Act. The section makes it a violation to pass a school bus which displays a warning device while it is loading or unloading students. The resolution also requests the government to post signs to alert the motorist of bus loading zones.

The second resolution requests an amendment to the Public Schools Act which would allow the divisions to pay tuition fees and travel allowances on behalf of students attending schools outside of the province.

The third resolution asks that the travel allowance be increased 12c per mile while on school business.

The Board agreed to sponsor 6 students to a conference sponsored by the Manitoba Association for the Mentally Handicapped. The conference is to be held at Portage later this month. The students to be sponsored are high school students who assist with recreation program during noon hours at the Kinsmen School in Viriden. All classes in the Division will be cancelled on Friday, October 27/72 in order to provide time for an in-service education day. In-service sessions in various subject areas have been planned and will be held in Winnipeg, Souris, Brandon, Minnedosa and Viriden.

The Division has established adult evening classes in typing and accounting (bookkeeping). The classes, given one evening per week for 20 weeks, are held at the Viriden Collegiate.

The total enrolment in the schools of the Division at the end of September was 2338. This figure represents a net loss of 85.5 students since the end of June. A kindergarten student is counted as one-half for grant purposes.

Trustee C. O. Motheral reported on the progress of the Regional Secondary School which is to serve 11 school divisions, including Fort La Bosse, in south western Manitoba. Construction of the school, which is to be located in Brandon, is expected to get underway next month.

THANKS FOR THE SUPPORT!

The Reston Lions Club wish to thank all who supported the raffle of the travel trailer and also those who attended the dine and dance—both ventures were a success, thanks to your participation. Also thanks for the orders received to date for potatoes, the yield was the largest ever since this project began and because of this fact there are still quite a few bags available—just contact any Lions member for your supply. It should be mentioned that not only was the yield good, but the quality of the potatoes is excellent. They are of the popular Netted Gem variety.
